

BRITISH RED CROSS SOCIETY AND ORDER OF ST JOHN

told me that the wound I had would keep me back of the lines until the war is over mother I will be marked for life in my walk my left leg
will probably be stiff but mother I am praying that it wont well I will have to go back to bed
so good bye

Danny Lewis
Block 7d ward 22
Kitchen Hospital
Brighton England

BRITISH RED CROSS SOCIETY AND
ORDER OF ST JOHN

Brighton Eng.
Oct 10 - 1897

Dear mother

I will drop
you a few lines to let you know I'm getting fine as I possible can now so dont be worried about me mother for I am able to be sitting up in bed with the help of a back rest. so mother I am getting along fine the Red cross was up and gave me
lots of stuff.
mother I dont think I will ever see the front
any more the nurse